

Stefan Ritter

Mag. iur., BA (Hons), MM, Lawyer and Partner stefan.ritter@ritter-partner.li

EDUCATION

2005 to 2006 – postgraduate degree, Executive Master in Mediation (MM)
2000 to 2002 – trainee lawyer at the Ritter-Wohlwend-Wolff law practice, Vaduz
1998 to 2000 – trainee lawyer at the Walch & Schurti law practice, Vaduz
1997 to 1998 – internship with the Princely Court of Justice (Fürstliches Landgericht), Vaduz
1991 to 1997 – law studies at the University of Salzburg (Austria), Mag. iur.
1987 to 1990 – economics degree course at the University of Nottingham (England), BA (Hons)
1987 – school leaving diploma, Bundesrealgymnasium, Feldkirch (Austria)

CAREER

since 2016 – founded the Data Trust Center (certified data security) since 2014 – President of the Liechtenstein Chamber of Lawyers since 2012 – Board Member and Managing Director of the ky-center ag for social media law, Vaduz since 2010 – Member of the Board of the Liechtenstein Chamber of Lawyers since 2010 – Board Member and Managing Director of Mandorit AG, Triesen since 2010 – Partner with the Ritter & Partner AG law practice, Triesen since 2006 – registered mediator 2005 to 2010 – Partner with the Ritter & Wohlwend law practice, Vaduz since 2002 – registered lawyer

AREAS OF SPECIALISATION

Employment law, banking and capital market law, building contract law, data protection law, IT and software law, marriage and family law, inheritance and probate law, company formations, company law, commercial law, land transfer law, internet law, bankruptcy law, mediation, tenancy law, property law, tort and warranty law, contract (obligations) law, social insurance law, foundation law, telecommunications law, trust law, association law, constitutional law, protection of fundamental rights, insurance law, general contract law, administrative law

MEMBERSHIP

since 2002 – member of the Liechtenstein Chamber of Lawyers 1997 to 2005 – judge of the Princely Supreme Court (Oberster Gerichtshof)

LANGUAGES

German, English